

it until I was a youngster of age to know so. But I was born and raised there.

Q: How long did you live in that house?

A: I lived there until I went into the service in 1958.

Q: To your knowledge has your father always lived there?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: And he has lived there ever since you can remember?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: Do you know of any time when your father has not considered that house to be his?

A: No, sir.

Q: Have you always considered that house to be his?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: Have you ever known of anyone to make a claim to any of your own knowledge to make a claim to any portion of that property?

A: No, sir.

Q: You were aware of the boundary dispute?

A: Yes, sir, but other than that.

Q: Has to your knowledge, all the time you have been aware that your father has lived in this property, has he always held out himself to be the owner openly, notoriously, hostilely, under claim of title, adversely to all others?

A: Yes, sir.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY, NOTHING FURTHER.
